Effective 1 April 1955, bonus payments to radio editors and journalists, which were formerly 30 leva per minute of radio time for material submitted on the author's initiative in excess of official duties, were cancelled. This caused a 20 percent reduction in wages in the case of the editors and 30 percent in the case of journalists, with the result that the basic monthly wage is now from 600 to 900 leva a month.
